DR. and MRS. ERIC RACHAM

Dedication

You Have

Touched Us

We Have Grown!

Silently he walked into our unknown Making his path softly among many.
Days quickly drifted into harmonious years.
Tomorrow remains among many journeys
For
The man who cared, and shared touching all around For wonders of our World

IMPRESSIONS

He was more than just an administrator, he was part of us - Bruce Winterrowd

Dr. Racham always had plenty of time to stop for a second and talk. That really impressed me. - Linda Hopwood

He is a distinguished scholar administrator, and individual. He'll be hard to replace - Bill James

He was very tolerant, understanding, and acceptable to all individuals who passed through McKendree. - Phyllis Kuhl

It will be nearly impossible to fill his shoes. Dr. Racham has a certain charisma not found in many people. He's got it all together. - JoAnn Mumaw

Dr. Racham deeply cares about people. - Thomas Darrah

Dr. Racham is a compassionate and understanding friend of all who know him. - Doris Weber

There's a lady who shows all that glitters is gold and she's buying the stairway to heaven.
When she gets there she knows if the stores are all closed with a word she can get what she came for.
Ooh, and she's buying the stairway to heaven!

Who's Who

The four students, Front: Randy Hopwood, Back: Nancy Weible, Georgia Martin, and Pam Boden were chosen from a original list of 50 applicants. Selection was based on individual's leadership and participation in extra-curricular and academic activities.

Randy was a speech major and served on several student committees, including the committee on student affairs and the faculty committee on student life.

Nancy majored in psychology and physical education. She was an officer of AO and the PEMM Club. Nancy served on the orientation committee and the programs committee, and is a member of the women's intercollegiate basketball, volleyball, and softball teams. She was also a cheerleader.

Georgia was the 1974 Homecoming queen. She was active in women's intercollegiate sports and a member of the choir. She was a member of the student publications committee and served on the Academic Affairs Committe.

Pam was co-editor of the Review, and vice president of Sigma. Pam was a history and English major. She has been involved in the hospitality and publicity committee, the orientation committee and the intramural program.
